

DEVINE, ALLEN, BYERS ELECTED REPRESENTATIVES

REPUBLICANS LOST TWO U. S. SENATORS IN MID-WEST VOTES

Six States in Section Charges Senators By Their Vote.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Chicago, Nov. 8.—Although six middlewestern states changed their political complexion, as to United States senators in yesterday's election on the face of returns early today, the net indicated loss to the republicans in these states was only two senators.

In three of the states—Indiana, North Dakota and Minnesota—returns showed democratic candidates leading for senate places. In two states—Ohio and Nebraska—the figures indicated the unseating of democratic incumbents.

In a sixth state—Michigan—the result became doubtful early today when W. N. F. Ferris, democratic candidate, took the lead away from Senator Charles F. Townsend, republican, on late returns from Detroit. Some doubt also was expressed regarding the result in Minnesota where, despite the early lead of Henrik Shipstead, Farmer-Labor candidate, maintained over Senator Frank B. Kellogg, republican, friends of the latter refused to concede his defeat and asserted that returns from the rural districts would reverse the apparent majority against him.

Fess Leads Pomerene
During the night Congressman S. D. Fess, republican, of Ohio, continued to increase his lead over Senator Alton Pomerene, democratic senator leader, while in Indiana Samuel Rastson, democrat, kept well ahead of former Senator Albert J. Beveridge, republican, and follower of Theodore Roosevelt in 1902. In Nebraska, Senator Gilbert Hitchcock, democratic leader under former President Wilson, early conceded his defeat by R. B. Howell, republican national committeeman.

While the voters in six states were upstaging or trying to upset their political idols, two other middlewestern commonwealths returned the present senators, James A. Reed, democrat, winning over R. R. Brewster, republican, in Missouri, while Robert M. LaFollette, running as a republican, defeated Mrs. Jack Hooper, leader of the Wisconsin Democratic ticket.

Two other western states—Iowa and Texas—elected new U. S. Senators for the same political faith as the former incumbents. In Iowa Smith W. Brookhart, republican, will take the seat of Charles A. Rawson, also republican, by defeating Clyde L. Herring, democrat.

Klan Foe Defeated
In Texas, Earle B. Mayfield, democrat, will take the place of former Senator Culbertson, whom he defeated in the primary. Mayfield won from G. E. B. Bedy, foe of the Ku Klux Klan, in yesterday's election.

Ohio, while electing a republican senator, apparently defeated Carmel R. Thompson, republican, for governor, on the face of late returns apparently giving his democratic opponent a comfortable lead.

In Illinois, while the republican state ticket polled a safe majority, a democratic landslide in Cook county, which included Chicago, swept all of the republican candidates supported by Mayor William Hale Thompson, with one exception to defeat.

With Shipstead, the Farmer-Labor candidate for the senate leading in Minnesota, returns indicated the reelection of Governor J. A. O. Preus and practically the entire republican state ticket. Farmer-Labor leaders, however, refused to concede the defeat of the gubernatorial candidate, Magnus Johnson, asserting that he would be elected by at least 20,000 plurality.

Beer and Wine Favored
The return of beer and light wines was favored by heavy majorities in Illinois, and won in Ohio on partial returns. In Illinois the vote was more than 2 to 1 in favor of the proposed modification of the prohibition act. Illinois also returned a heavy majority in favor of a $55,000,000 bonus to Illinois soldiers in the World War.

Congressman Andrew Volstead, father of the prohibition act, apparently was defeated for congress in Minnesota by the Rev. O. J. Kvale, who, however, has declared that he is "drier" than Volstead.

Fate of Women
Among the women candidates, Miss Alice Robertson, republican, of Oklahoma, the only woman in congress and the second of her sex to hold a seat in the house of representatives, was beaten by her democratic opponent W. W. Hastings, whom she defeated two years ago. In Missouri, Mrs. St. Clair Moss ran second to her male republican opponent in the 8th congressional district and in Illinois, Mrs. Winnifred Huck, apparently was elected congresswoman-at-large to fill the vacancy caused by the death of her father, William Mason.

T. C. Garland went to Mendota to see his mother, who is ill.

RE-ELECTED

JOHN H. BYERS

Lee county Republican Representative who was yesterday returned to the House in a close contest with A. T. Tourtellott for third place.

Exceptionally Fine Phone Service Last Night During Rush

From 6 o'clock last evening until shortly after midnight 341 calls for The Evening Telegraph passed through the Dixon Home Telephone Exchange, according to figures furnished this paper today by Manager Pitcher of the phone company. Of that number 49 were toll calls.

The exceptional number of calls was due to the election and the wide interest in it, and not once during the service did the young ladies at the switchboard fail. They were unusually cheerful and accommodating throughout the strain—for it was a strain—and earned the unstinted praise from the employees of The Telegraph for the work.

Author of Volstead Act Handed Defeat

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 8.—(By the Associated Press.)—Defeat of Congressman Andrew J. Volstead, author of the prohibition enforcement act, was indicated in returns available up to 10:30 a. m. today from yesterday's election. Rev. O. J. Kvale, independent, was leading him by 1,000 votes when more than half the precincts in the 7th district had been heard from.

DR. SICKELS HOME.
Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Sickels arrived home last evening from their hunting lodge in northern Minnesota, after a hard drive over bad roads.

WEATHER

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 8, 1922
Chicago and vicinity—Fair tonight and Thursday; not much change in temperature; moderate northwest winds, becoming light and variable.
Illinois—Fair tonight and Thursday; not much change in temperature; frost tonight.
Wisconsin—Generally fair tonight and Thursday; not much change in temperature.
Iowa—Fair tonight and Thursday, except probably somewhat unsettled in west portion Thursday; not much change in temperature.

DEMOCRATS GAINED CONGRESSMEN EARLY REPORTS INDICATED

Wet Governor Wins in New Jersey Over Harding Friend.

New York, Nov. 8.—(By the Associated Press.)—Democratic gains in the national elections continued to pile up steadily as belated returns came in from all parts of the country early today. Throughout the night, democratic gains in the house of representatives accumulated.

The republican forces failed to break into the democratic ranks in the south and lost one congressional district which they have held for years—the Ninth Virginia. Speaker Gillet was re-elected; Uncle Joe Cannon passed on his seat from Illinois to a republican, Miss Alice Robertson, republican of Oklahoma, the only woman in congress, was beaten by a man, and present house got an additional woman member, a republican in Mrs. Winnifred Huck, a daughter of the late William E. Mason of Illinois.

With the defeat of Governor Miller of New York by Alfred E. Smith, the republicans also lost thirteen seats of the empire state in the house of representatives, and a senator, William M. Calder, who was beaten by Dr. Royal S. Copeland, democrat, health commissioner of New York City.

"Wet" Wins in New Jersey

With democratic victories in other states some national figures close to the republican administration and President Harding personally went down to defeat. Senator Lodge of Massachusetts apparently was elected, but ran far behind the ticket in his state. Senator Frelinghuysen of New Jersey, one of the president's intimates, who ran on a dry platform in New Jersey was beaten by Governor

Edwards, democrat, who ran on an openly acknowledged wet platform. Senator Johnson, republican, of California, came back, as did Senator McLean of Connecticut, one of the administration leaders in the tariff fight. In Delaware Senator Dupont was having a close run for both the long and the short terms.

Beveridge Is Beaten
In Indiana, former Governor Rastson, democrat, was running ahead of former Senator Albert J. Beveridge, and thus threatened to remove from the republican field one who had been counted on as an aspirant for the Republican presidential nomination in 1924. In case President Harding should decline it.

In Iowa, Colonel Smith W. Brookhart came through to victory on the republican ticket, although he was openly frowned on by some of the republican leaders and the platform of the state convention repudiated many of the so-called "radical" principles for which he declared. On the other hand, Senator France, republican, of Maryland, charged with radical tendency, was beaten by the democratic candidate William Cabel Bruce, prominent Baltimore lawyer.

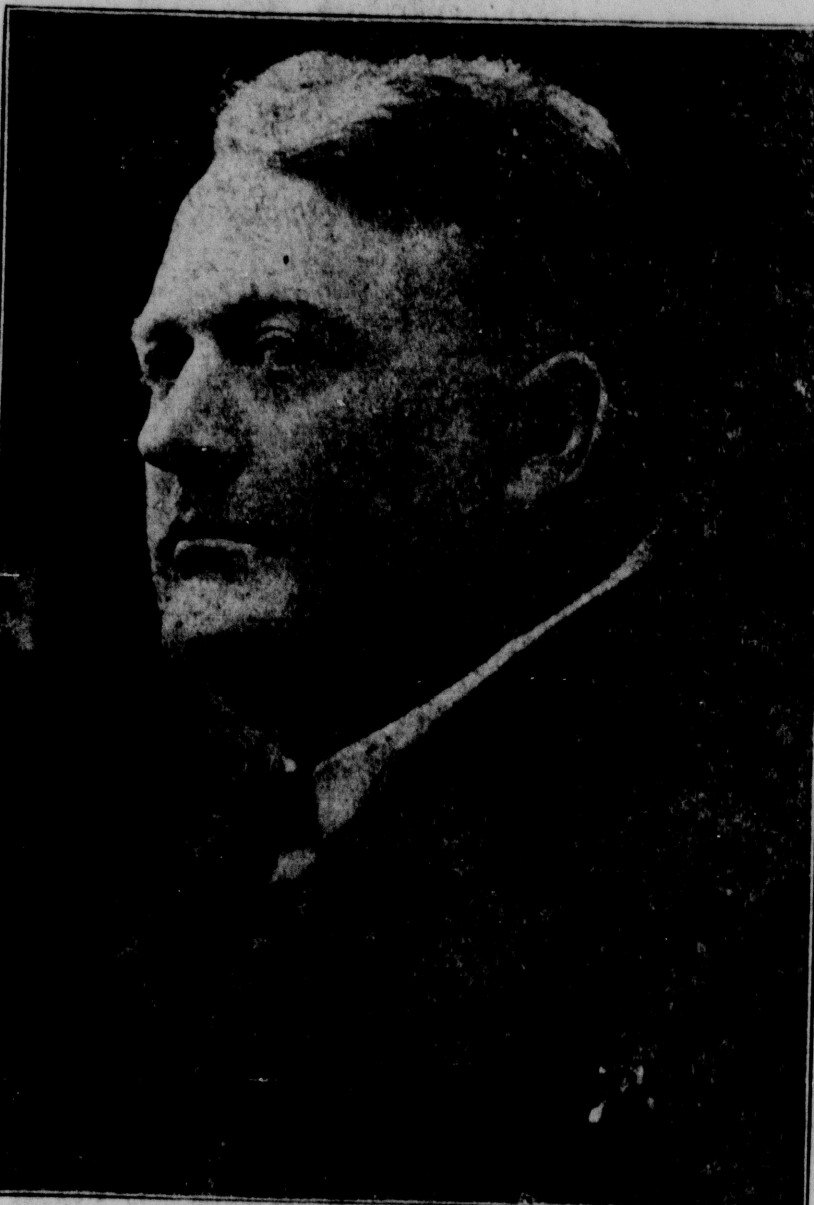

In Michigan, Senator Townsend, the republican incumbent, who had a fight on his hands over the Newberry issue, was running behind, while in Minnesota, where first returns favored Senator Frank B. Kellogg, one of the republican war horses and a close friend of the President, late returns showed him running second to Shipstead, who ran on the Farmer-Labor ticket. Mrs. Annie Olson, the democratic nominee, ran third.

Senator Reed Leads
Senator Reed, democrat from Missouri, a veteran of many disputes with the Wilson administration, was leading his republican opponent on the returns early today and seemed assured of election. In Montana, Burton K. Wheeler, the democratic candidate, was running ahead of his republican opponent Carl R. Black, for the seat of Senator Myers, democrat. Senator Hitchcock, democrat, of Nebraska, floor leader for the Wilson administration forces in the peace treaty fight, was beaten by R. B. Howell, Republican national committeeman from the state, counted among the progressive republicans. In North Dakota, where the Non-Partisan League was a great factor, J. E. O'Connor, democrat, was leading former Governor Frazier, who had the republican nomination, lost in the primaries by Senator McCumber, another republican veteran. In Ohio, Representative Fess, republican, was running a close race with leading Senator Pomerene, democrat, who had been counted a possibility for the democratic presidential nomination in the event of his success this year. Labor votes, it was said, were cast against Senator Pomerene because of his stand on the railroad question.

Pennsylvania Republican
Pennsylvania, going republican as usual sent Gifford Pinchot to the governor's chair with republican administration and re-elected Senators Pepper and Reed, the latter for both a short and a longer term. Senator Gerry, democrat, Rhode Island, beat the former Republican Governor, R.

THANKS VOTERS OF THIS DISTRICT

Representative John P. Devine, whose sensational race for re-election yesterday, surprised even his most ardent supporters and swept him into office ahead of the leading Republican candidate, today expressed his appreciation as follows:

Through the Telegraph I desire to express my appreciation to the republican and democratic voters of Lee county for the generous support received yesterday. I shall endeavor to merit the confidence the vote indicates.

JOHN P. DEVINE.

TRIAL OF FIRST HERRIN MURDER CASE IS STARTED

It is Expected Tonight Will Be Necessary for Jury.

Marion, Ill., Nov. 8.—(By the Associated Press.)—The trials of persons indicted in connection with the Herring Mine killings last June began at 10 a. m. in Williamson county Circuit court with the arraignment of 48 men charged with murder. Judge D. T. Hartwell, presiding, cautioned spectators, who overfilled the court room, that quiet must be maintained.

Marion, Ill., Nov. 8.—(By the Associated Press.)—A legal contest for the release of at least 10 of the 48 men charged in indictments with murder in connection with the Herring mine killings last June, was expected to develop when the trial of the 48 accused of causing the death of Howard Hoffman, an employee of the Southern Illinois Mining Company, started before Circuit Judge D. T. Hartwell here today.

While no official concession has been made by the representatives it is generally believed that not more than six will be placed on trial for the killing of Hoffman, while the other cases probably will be nolle prossed for lack of evidence. It is generally believed, only those against whom the state has been able to collect the most damaging evidence will be put on trial for the death of Hoffman.

The selection of the jury, it is expected, will require at least two weeks. A venire of 150 men has been summoned from which the jury will be selected.

Attorney General E. J. Brundage, who conducted the inquiry which led to the issuance of the indictments, is expected to arrive here the latter part of the week. In the meantime State Attorney Delos Duty will have charge of the prosecution.

IN CALIFORNIA.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
San Francisco, Nov. 8.—One thousand and ninety-two precincts in the state gave these totals this morning on two constitutional amendments: State prohibition enforcement: yes 56,925; no, 82,418. Soldiers' bonus: yes 62,246; no 32,972.

DIXON DEMOCRAT WAS SENSATION IN RACE TUESDAY

Heads Legislative Ticket; Republicans Win in County.

BULLETIN

With Lee and Whiteside returns complete and only two precincts missing in DeKalb county, the vote insures the election of John P. Devine, Dem., and Henry Allen and John H. Byers, Rep. Devine got about 25,000 votes in the district and is over 3000 votes ahead of Allen, his nearest opponent. Byers has over 1000 votes as a margin of safety over Tourtellott and therefore is safe, with only two precincts to hear from.

The vote stands:
Devine 24,409
Allen 21,631
Byers 13,876
Tourtellott 12,846

On an earlier count, with fourteen precincts in DeKalb missing, the vote over the district gave A. G. Harris, Independent candidate, 2980 votes.

Tuesday's election was an interesting one from many angles but the feature of the local balloting was the landslide to Hon. John P. Devine for Representative in the state legislature. The Democratic House leader swept this old rock-ribbed republican district like wild-fire, leading the entire field, carrying both Lee and DeKalb counties and running a good second to Allen in Whiteside. With Lee and Whiteside returns complete and a few precincts missing in DeKalb, it is indicated that the delegation to Springfield from the 45th district will be Henry Allen, John P. Devine and John H. Byers with Senator Harry G. Wright returning as easy victor over his democratic opponent, C. W. Faltz, who showed a surprising strength, but not enough to endanger Senator Wright.

Incoming returns indicated that Senator Wright was not holding his own with the head of the republican ticket in Lee and Whiteside counties. Voters in this district forgot the party circle yesterday and went to bat with other things in mind than party interests. Incomplete returns give Devine 21,559, Allen 19,530, Byers 11,978, Tourtellott 10,754 and Harris 2,980. The vote was a rebuke to the attempt on the part of Republicans in DeKalb and Whiteside counties to elect three Republicans to the legislature and freeze out Devine. It resulted in giving the minority representative the biggest vote ever given a Democrat in this district, thousands of Republicans scratching their tickets in his favor.

A. G. Harris, independent candidate, apparently secured less than half of the votes awarded him when he was defeated in the Republican primary.

John Byers of Dixon received a fine vote in Lee county and showed surprising strength in Whiteside county. I. DeKalb County Major Tourtellott was accorded a splendid vote and was leading Byers on incomplete returns by less than 100 votes with fourteen precincts to hear from. Byers' lead of nearly 1,400 over the district was believed to be ample to safely absorb further Tourtellott gains in the missing DeKalb precincts. Tourtellott received a good vote generally over the district, but seemed unable to overtake his nearest opponent, Byers.

G. O. P. County Ticket.

The Republican county ticket was elected without a break, although Frank Vaughan of Amboy pushed Charles Eastman of Dixon closely in his race for county treasurer and Sherwood Dixon, the Democratic candidate for county judge, made a splendid showing against Judge Crabtree, who was re-elected. Atty Dixon ran as the ex-service men's candidate.

Miss Mary Erwin, on the Democratic ticket for county superintendent of schools, though not an active candidate, was given a very complimentary vote, although L. W. Miller, the incumbent, was at no time in danger.

In view of the great amount of ticket scratching among Republicans it is felt that the Lee county Republican organization did good work to carry the ticket through in its entirety.

For Beer and Bonus.

The bonus bill was given splendid support by Lee county voters and more than two to one of those who indicated favored the compensation for the soldiers of the world war, with 19 precincts missing. The vote was: Yes, 443; No, 193.

On the Beer and Wine ticket the vote, with ten precincts missing, was: Yes, 3639; No, 2296. The total vote cast is not available this afternoon and will be necessary to make final figures.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 8.—Mrs. Ella M. O'Connell, St. Paul, apparently has been elected treasurer of Ramsey (St. Paul) county, according to returns available this morning.

Alleged "Machine" in Capital Beaten

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 8.—The strong republican machine of Richard M. Sullivan, known locally for many years as "the little boss of Sangamon county" has been seriously dented in two places, practically complete returns from the county show this afternoon. The defeat of one of the Sullivan candidates, County Clerk Charles W. Byers, is attributed by local politicians directly to the denunciation of Byers, uttered by Judge Edwards of Waukegan in the Governor Small trial. The other position lost by Sullivan is that of county judge.

Judge Edwards declared from the bench that Byers, who had testified for the prosecution, had been "a willing witness to these indictments," and it is believed by his friends and foes alike that this judicial pronouncement is what caused Byers' downfall after ten years as county clerk.

William Natterman was his successful democratic opponent. The county judgeship also fell to the democrats, when Eugene E. Bone, defeated County Judge John B. Weaver. Judge Weaver recently decided an election fraud case in favor of the city election commission who are reported to be Sullivan's supporters.

Five Killed Today in Mine Accident

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 8.—The state department of mines was today informed of a mine accident at the Olyphant Mine of the Hudson Coal Company in which five men were killed and two injured. The accident is said to have been due to a "blow out shot." The mines department has dispatched inspectors to the scene.

GET THE NEEDLE, WATSON

Davenport, Iowa, Nov. 8.—After a three day search by the police for Harry Carey, alleged slayer of Macho Rocha, the discovery was made today that the dead man is Carey himself and that the man wanted is Macho who has now three days' jump, according to authorities.

CLINTON LEGION TO BE GIVEN CHANCE TO GET EVEN WITH DIXON

Think They Can Defeat
Locals So Game Has Been Arranged.

The Clinton American Legion football team is to have another opportunity to appear in Dixon against the local Legion team. Coach Sherwood Dixon announced this morning. The townsmen believe, according to correspondence exchanged with the Dixon coach, that they had sufficient practice and if given another opportunity, can defeat Dixon. Not caring to take any advantage, a date for a return game has been granted and Clinton will appear here again on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 19.

LaSalle has cancelled their engagement here for Nov. 26. Repeated requests for a game at Elgin will be honored for this date and the Dixon Leg on will make the trip to that city accompanied by both the band and about 200 fans.

The Thanksgiving day game with the Springfield Wildcats promises to be the star contest of the season. Word from that city is to the effect that a special train will bring the football team, a band and between five and six hundred fans to Dixon. The Legion band will also be out for the occasion and a crowd of about 3,000 is expected for this game.

Next Sunday afternoon, the Davenport Battery C squad will oppose the Legion at Brown's Field. Coach Dixon announced this morning that the general admission would be raised to 75 cents for the remaining games of the season. The teams to be seen in action for the rest of the schedule are the best that can be booked from this section of the country and the expense of bringing high class organizations has made necessary the slight increase in the admission charge.

Miss Robertson in Defeat; Is Through

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Muskegon, Okla., Nov. 8.—Miss Alice Robertson, who rode into congress on the republican tide of 1920 and became the only woman member, 43 was swept out of public life yesterday by the backwash which brought a democratic victory.

She was defeated by W. W. Hastings, democrat the man she ousted from office at the last election.

Still smiling in the face of an insurmountable majority piled up against her in every part of her district, "Miss Alice" retired early today refusing to concede election of her opponent.

"They counted me out two years ago, but at the end of three days they decided I was elected after all," she said.

But her campaign manager had no such optimism.

With more than half of the precincts in the district reporting, the count against Miss Robertson stood almost 2 to 1. She had a slender margin of 228 votes in 1920.

Today's Market Report

(By Associated Press Leased Wire.)

Vegetable Market

Chicago, Nov. 8.—Potato markets weakened last week nearly everywhere in the country except Chicago, according to the weekly review of fruit and vegetable markets by the United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

The downward trend of prices for potatoes was accompanied by a rapid decline in shipments. Some damage from freezing was reported in New York and New England.

The potato situation in western producing sections has been discouraging. Poor markets cut shipments 50 per cent below those of last year. Idaho growers received only 20 to 35 cents per 100 pounds and some farmers in the northwest offered potatoes free to anyone who would dig them.

While the decline in potatoes featured the week in the fruit and vegetable markets, most other lines declined also. Some lines, including Massachusetts and New Jersey cranberries and South Carolina string beans remained steady.

About the only line to show a general advance in price was barbed apples. Box apples tended to decline in most cities.

American Legion Auxiliary—Celebrate Armistice Day in Legion Hall.

GOLDEN WEDDING DELIGHTFULLY OBSERVED—

Last evening at their home on Third avenue, Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Bales were delightfully surprised by about thirty-five guests, honoring the golden wedding anniversary of the host and hostess.

Fifty years ago William Henry Bales and Martha Ellen Mason were married—the wedding being celebrated at the Mason home in Somerset county, Pa., Nov. 7th, 1872. They came west to Carroll county in 1879, and moved to Dixon in March, 1892.

Mr. Bales was with the Anglo Swiss Milk Co. until Borden secured the plant and for thirty years gave the companies valued continuous service.

Surrounded with their children and their families and intimate friends gathered to do honor to the esteemed couple, the evening proved one of unusual enjoyment and pleasure.

A sumptuous turkey dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock. The table was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and ferns. The Bales home was gay with chrysanthemums, in yellow, in compliment to the occasion, great golden blooms being used, and with delicate pink "mums" also.

The members of the family attending the golden wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. John Bales and children, John, Jr., and Mildred, of Cedar Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Monte Bales, Clinton, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. James R. Bales and family; Mary and James, Jr., Dixon; a brother, T. M. Mason, and wife, Cedar Rapids, Ia.; a sister, Mrs. Sadie Senne, Rock Falls. About twenty other guests were present, including Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Burke, Mrs. John Benjamin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Eichen, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ward.

After the elaborate dinner an impromptu musical program included piano numbers by Mrs. T. M. Mason, Miss Mildred Bales, Miss Mary Bales. The All-Star Quartet of Clinton furnished an excellent program.

J. E. Bales, the oldest member of the family, gave a short address, full of congratulations and then presented to Mr. and Mrs. Bales a purse of gold from those present. The gift of esteem and love is greatly appreciated by the recipients who also received numerous letters and messages of congratulations and best wishes of countless friends. The Telegraph also extends best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Bales and hopes that they celebrate many such happy days.

Miss Vera Bales and Miss Grace Sheely of Chicago, could not be present at the celebration.

BALDWIN AUXILIARY FIELD INSPECTION—

The members of Baldwin Auxiliary U. S. W. V. held a meeting last evening in G. A. R. hall which was largely attended. An inspection was held, the inspection being conducted by Mrs. Etta Tourtellot, Department Commander. The meeting was full of much interest and was greatly enjoyed by everyone.

DIXON WOMAN'S CLUB SATURDAY—

The Dixon Woman's Club will hold its regular meeting on Saturday, Nov. 11th, at St. Paul's Lutheran church. The Art and Literature department will be in charge of the program.

Mrs. J. N. Parker, State Art chairman, I. E. W. C., will address the club. Mrs. Parker has been in Dixon on several occasions and is well worth hearing and a large attendance is desired.

MR. AND MRS. BURHEEN HERE TODAY—

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Burhean were here from Franklin Grove today doing some shopping and visiting friends.

ENTERTAINED AT DINNER MONDAY EVENING—

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Warner entertained at dinner Monday evening at the Morrison home, honoring their wedding anniversary.

TO RESIDE THIS WINTER IN WILMETTE—

Miss Myrtle Judd who has been making her home in Chicago, has been spending a few days in Dixon with her mother, Mrs. Clinton Judd, and with her sister, Miss Grace Judd. Tomorrow Mrs. Judd and the Misses Myrtle and Grace Judd will leave for Wilmette to make their home for the winter with Mrs. Humphries, another daughter of Mrs. Judd's.

WERE GUESTS HERE SUNDAY—

Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Vaupel of Ashton were entertained on Sunday at dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Mall in this city.

HONORING ARMISTICE DAY—

On Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Legion hall the members of the American Legion Auxiliary will hold a meeting in honor of Armistice Day. Rev. B. H. Cleaver will be the speaker of the afternoon and the subject of his address will be "Sampson's Riddles."

Chancellor Coming to Discuss Debts

London, Nov. 8.—(By the Associated Press)—The new Chancellor of the Exchequer, Stanley Baldwin, is going to the United States before the first of the new year, to conduct the war debt funding negotiations in place of Sir Robert Horne, who was forced to forego the trip because of change in government. It was announced by Foreign Secretary Curzon today.

BEVERIDGE TRAILS

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 8.—Samuel H. Ralston, dem., former governor, had a lead of 13,729 over Albert J. Beveridge, his republican opponent for United States senator from Indiana when unofficial returns had been compiled from 1998 out of 3395 precincts today. The precincts tabulated include the vote from Marion county and all of the large cities of the state. Mr. Ralston's election was assured.

BROOKHART IS HAPPY

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Iowa, Nov. 8.—"Reactionary republicanism is dead in Iowa and I intend to continue to exert my every effort to see that it never stages a comeback," said Smith W. Brookhart when informed that Associated Press returns assured him of a victory of approximately 175,000 majority over Clyde L. Herring.

"In my election is a victory for the farmers, labor, soldiers and mothers of Iowa, who elected me on the program I had announced in my primary campaign. If the republican party expects to win in the future contests it must do so upon platforms similar to that upon which I have stood since the announcement of my candidacy."

G. O. P. IN SOUTH DAKOTA

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 8.—Returns in South Dakota continued to come in slowly today with indications that no changes would be made in the status of the various candidates. All republican candidates for higher state offices apparently were maintaining safe leads over their opponents.

WOMAN ON BENCH

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 8.—Returns available early today indicated that Ohio voters yesterday elected a democratic governor, a republican United States senator, returned a majority of its present solid republican congressional delegation, and probably elected republicans to most state offices, while the proposed constitutional amendment authorizing the sale of wine and beer was still in doubt.

As classified by the anti-saloon league during the campaign, eleven of the sixteen congressmen whose election seemed assured are dry and five wet.

On early returns today, one of Ohio's women candidates for office, Miss Florence E. Allen, independent of Cleveland, maintained a lead of 11,000 votes over her next nearest competitor for election to the Ohio supreme court.

Robert H. Day of Canton, was running second, Miss Allen second and Judge Benson W. Hough was running third on available returns.

Mrs. Virginia D. Green, also an independent of Cleveland, was running a poor third for U. S. Senator.

THE CHANGELESS.
(From the Kansas City Star.) Dream-enfolded, with a homing longing ever drawing me,
So I roving in the gloaming where my playmates used to be,
Sometimes they seem to meet me, all so
blithesome, air and free,
And with cheerful voices greet me—
radiant maidens, brave boys bold—
And I play with little children who can never now grow old.

Men and women gray and weary, toil-
worn, wrinkled, blanched by tears,
When with me have shared the dreary,
common drudgery of dull years—
They seem ghostly, sad and lonely.
All they used to be appears Real—the actual shadow only. Warm within my soul I fold Bright and happy little children who
can never now grow old.

Even aging time that changes more than death must leave me these:
Where my fadeless fancy ranges dwell
immortal memories.
Fresh among the flowers of Maytime,
charmed by all rich harmonies,
Bliss as when the years had playtime,
still in autumn's twilight cold, Smile the wistful little children who
can never now grow old.

Here forever rests a splendor, the enchantment of old days,
And I dream amid soft, tender visions
haunting youth's sweet ways—
Society of far and olden beauty present pain allays.
And restores ideals golden which my bosom used to hold.
While I play with little children who
can never now grow old.
—Stokely S. Fisher.

"KNITTING BEE" FOR THE DISABLED WORLD WAR VETERANS.

Friday afternoon, the members of Dixon Relief Corps will hold a "Knitting Bee" in G. A. R. hall. A large quantity of yarn has been most generously donated to make sleeping caps
for the tubercular boys in the Fitzsimmons Hospital in Denver, Colo.,
and Dixon Corps will gladly welcome
anyone, old or young, who will help knit these caps. Knitted samples, instructors, and yarn will be on hand
Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock and it is earnestly hoped that there will be a generous response from the "willing workers" to spend the afternoon with the members of Dixon Corps in this work.

ANNUAL INSPECTION

W. R. C. NO. 218.

The members of the Dixon Woman's Relief Corps 218, Auxiliary to the G.
A. R., Comrades of the Post and guests to the number of 125 made
"gain" appearance in G. A. R. hall on Monday evening to witness the annual inspection of Dixon Corps. The guest of honor was Department Inspector, Dora L. North, who will long be remembered for her pleasing personality and her kindly and helpful attitude.

A canopy of red, white and blue
streamers stretched to the four corners of the hall, the work of the officers and drill team. They, clad in white, the scene enhanced by the almost constant flutter of the National Emblem, born by the four color bearers, made a pleasing sight and one in which there could be detected, scarcely, a flaw.

It was in these terms that Mrs.
North complimented the officers for their work and especially the four color bearers upon whom so much of the floor work depends. Of them, Mrs.
North said, and well deservedly, "It is seldom one is given the opportunity to witness such excellence and precision, such a 'oneness' of movement, and Dixon can well be proud."

There were present, visitors from Oregon and Sterling Corps, six comrades and an exceptionally large representation of the charter members,
from one of whom it was learned that Dixon Corps started 30 years ago with 100 charter members and has never, in its history, fallen below that number.
The total membership today is 292.

As a token of esteem, Mrs. North was presented with an exquisite silver cake plate and in response said that she would always carry with her happy remembrances of Dixon Corps and in conclusion expressed her appreciation to the young ladies of the drill team for the beautiful way in which they escorted her, "neath the colors,
to her station."

Most tempting refreshments of salad, wafers, cake and coffee were served
and a delightful social hour was enjoyed with Mrs. North after the meeting.

MISS ORTGIESEN ENJOYING VACATION.

Miss Tina Ortgiesen is taking a several weeks' vacation from her duties on the C. & N. W. Ry., during which she will visit her sister's home, Mr.
and Mrs. P. W. Pitts in New Orleans, La., and will also take a trip to Cuba
via the Gulf of Mexico. After her vacation Miss Ortgiesen will take a position in Chicago for the C. & N. W. Ry.
Having had several years of experience in the railroad clerical work Miss Ortgiesen is most capable of taking charge of her new and advanced position in Chicago.

MARRIAGE A LA MODE.

In India most girls are betrothed in childhood. When a girl has reached the age of 11 and her father has made no matrimonial provisions for her she may take the initiative and secure a husband for herself, though she may never marry anyone in the caste below
her own.

The Indian bride's dowry is in jewels. Old families give one daughter emeralds, another pearls and another sapphires. Usually a girl's dowry jewels are of one variety.

WERE ENTERTAINED AT FELLOWS HOME SUNDAY.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Patch and family, of Franklin Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gilbert and family, of Mil-lidgeville, were entertained Sunday at the John Fellows home of this city.

TO CONDUCT CHILDREN'S CHORUS THIS YEAR.

Choral Union, will conduct again this year a Children's Chorus. Last year, in a few months Mr. Leo proved that he is indeed a wonderful instructor and was especially successful with the children. They gave a concert last year at the Presbyterian church which was much enjoyed by a large audience.

Sometime in December a combined concert will be given by the Choral
Union and by the Children's Chorus.
If the plans at present under way are carried to successful consummation.

IF YOU ARE WELL-BRED.

You never lose your temper, or if you do you conceal the fact when you are engaged in a social game. No matter how seriously you play, you give the impression that you play for sake of the game rather than to win.
It is the mark of the good sportsman always to give your opponent the benefit of the doubt, even though it cost you the point. Always be a cheerful loser and a quiet winner.

CANDLELIGHTERS TO MEET FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

The Candlelighters' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will hold a meeting Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'- clock at the church. The meeting will be preceded by a scramble luncheon which will be served at 1 o'clock. Each member should have with her sandwiches, and one other generous dish of food and her dishes and silverware.

MOTORED TO RIVER FOREST.

Mrs. Charles Plein and daughter,
Christena, Miss Imogene Loftus, motored to River Forest Sunday and visited Miss Lucile Conley and Miss Katherine McKenna, who are attending Rosary College.

TO CONDUCT CONTEST FOR BOYS.

Ralph Leo, leader of the Dixon Choral Union, will conduct a voice
contest for boys under fourteen years of age. The winner of the contest will be given lessons in singing free of charge by Mr. Leo.

MYSTIC WORKERS TO MEET FRIDAY EVENING.

Mystic Workers will meet in regular session Friday evening at 8 o'- clock in Union hall. All members of the drill team are asked to come at 7:30 o'clock for a business meeting.

TO SPEND THE WINTER IN ST. LOUIS.

Mrs. Theron Hendrix and son, Elmer, and daughter, Mrs. Siebolt of Nelson, left this morning for St. Louis where Mrs. Hendrix and son will spend the winter.

U AND I CLUB TO MEET.

The members of the U and I club
will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs.
Wm. Schultz, 1310 West Third street.
An election is to be held and a large attendance of members is desired.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY TO MEET.

The members of the Baptist Missionary Society will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 with Mrs. John A.
Simpson at the parsonage, 410 Ottawa avenue.

SECTION NO. 1 M. E. AID TO MEET.

Section No. 1 of the M. E. Aid society will meet Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. D. C. Leake,
105 Dement avenue.

Joyful Family Reunion

"Two of my brothers, a sister, as well as myself have been chronic sufferers from gas in stomach, indiges-

with such good results that we all took a course of it and it helped in each case. Last Sunday we had a family reunion in celebration of our recovery

By Wearing A Comfort
Corset-Brassiere

Note The Difference

The illustrations show convincingly that the Comfort Brassiere
is far superior to the Bras-sieres
now being worn.

THE COMFORT BRASSIERE is adaptable to every woman, whether of slender, medium, or full figure. It is designed and fitted to give beautiful unbroken lines and affords an ideal gown foundation, is adjustable to fit perfectly, and will not ride-up over the corset.

Gives the Figure a Trim Straight Line Appearance
Supports, Flattens and Reduces the Bust
Prevents Bulging of the Diaphragm
Gives the Proper Abdominal Support
Adds Carriage to the Figure
Makes You Appear 10 to 20 Pounds Lighter

The Comfort Corset Brassiere outlasts a dozen ordinary brassieres and will retain its shaping after long wear and repeated washing.

Many Casualties in Dublin Fight Today

By Associated Press Leased Wire
London, Nov. 8.—Irish Republican forces in Dublin opened heavy fire
on the Wellington Military Barracks
at 9:30 o'clock this morning and casualties are believed to be numerous,
according to a Central News dispatch. The district surrounding the barracks has been isolated, and the fighting is continuing, the dispatch
said.

In California and Arizona a plant
called the Devil's Bur punctures
automobile tires with its spiny seeds.

Moava Quickly Defeats Deadly Pyorrhea Germs

Here is the one sure way to get rid of Pyorrhea with all its disgusting
symptoms—Bad Teeth and Bleeding,
pus discharging gums.

Go to your druggist today, ask for a tube of MOAVA DENTAL CREAM
and use carefully according to directions. Instantly you will feel the effect as its penetrating, antiseptic
properties are carried into the crevices
and pockets where the Pyorrhea germs thrive. Your teeth will begin to tighten, the gums will stop discharging
pus, bleeding or receding and the entire mouth or oral cavity will feel cleaner and taste sweeter.

MOAVA is surely creating a sensation among dentists and people who
for years have suffered humiliation
caused by unsightly teeth and gums.
MOAVA is no ordinary tooth paste.
It is the formula of a Rochester, N. Y.
dentist, the result of several years
careful study and experiment, and so speedily does it bring relief and stop the progress of the disease that dentists and professional men are simply amazed. Get a tube of MOAVA DENTAL CREAM today. You'll make no mistake. If you really are a sufferer from Pyorrhea or Riggs' Disease
you have surely wanted to know if a treatment existed that would put an end to your troubles. MOAVA DENTAL CREAM is just such a treatment. All druggists can supply

THE BLACK HAWK TRAIL

An article, apparently inspired by some person who didn't know what he was writing about, has been going
the rounds in a number of northern Illinois newspapers, intimating that Governor Small is going to abandon the construction of State Bond Issue Route 2, the Black Hawk Trail, from Mendota to Rockford, via Dixon, Oregon and Bryon and push the paving of the Meridian road from Mendota to Rockford, via Rockville. This sort of propaganda has very naturally thrown a scare into not a few Ogle
county people who are deeply interested in the early building of the Black Hawk Trail along the west side
of Rock river which, when completed,
will be not only one of the most scenic drives in the entire central west but also one of the most heavily used.

The Register-Gazette has not interviewed Governor Small on the subject but it is convinced that he entertains on such thought as indicated above.

The general assembly of Illinois
passed a $60,000,000 good roads bond issue bill, creating a system of trunk highways in the state and providing where these should be built. Then it ordered the bill submitted to a referendum vote of the people before it should become a law and it was approved by an overwhelming majority.
By this vote the people definitely established the routes and made them
as much a part of the law as the $60,000,000 bond issue itself. Neither Governor Small or any other person would have a right to violate the provisions of this law by the abandonment of routes specified therein and the expenditure of bond issue funds
on routes not named in the law, if they wanted to. The legislature definitely fixed the routes and the people
gave approval to the plan at a general election.

Moreover, the State Highway Commission, at a largely attended meeting held at Dixon last fall, at which Governor Small was present, after hearing arguments, unanimously approved and established Route No. 2
from Mendota to Rockford, passing through Dixon and Oregon, as called for in the law. State engineers have been engaged for the past two months
in making the survey of the route from Dixon to Rockford and this work has practically been completed.
It is expected that a considerable portion of this route will be constructed next year.

Governor Small, it is true, is anxious to see the Meridian highway built from Mendota through Rockville to connect with the concrete highway
at the south line of Wineago county
but this will have to be financed in some manner other than out of the $60,000,000 good roads bond issue, for not a penny of that fund could be legally used on other than the bond issue routes specified in the law and the Meridian highway, unfortunately,
was not so specified.

Both the Black Hawk trail and the Meridian highway will be built in due course of time and it is foolish for the boosters of either to engage in knocking the other. Both are needed,
but the law will have to be followed in their construction.—Rockford Register-Gazette.

BEAUTY SPOTS OF ILLINOIS

One hundred of the beauty spots of Illinois are to be marked. They are to be chosen by a committee of judges from photographs submitted by individuals or communities. On the touring maps of the state such as Rand McNally's and the Interstate Auto Guide, these spots are to be indicated for the benefit of the traveler.
says the Illinois State Journal.
This task has been undertaken by the art extension committee of the University of Illinois Better Community Conference. It is a development of the excursion through the Rock River country in 1921 and the scenic points in Illinois. Among these were the excursions through the Rock River country in 1921 and the recent trip from Peoria to St. Louis and return on the Illinois river, one of the most successful jaunts of the kind ever undertaken in this section of the country. Nearly one hundred people, representing more than sixty different counties made up the party.

Among them were the most distinguished of the state's artists.

That Illinois has beauty spots that are worth presenting to the tourist has been the conclusion that all have reached who have made these excursions. The committee has decided to choose the 100 most notable for marking. Later on, it is likely that others will be added.

Mrs. Mary E. Aleshire of Plymouth, Ill., chairman of the committee who will have immediate charge of the photographic competition. All photographs must be sent to her and must be in her hands not later than Jan. 1, 1923. Mr. O. C. Simmons, of Chicago, the well known landscape and park designer, and Prof. J. C.
Blair, head of the department of horticulture in the University of Illinois
will assist Mrs. Aleshire's committee in choosing the one hundred beauty spots and in seeing that a proper mark is erected at each one. The chosen views will later be enlarged
and placed in a permanent exhibition at the university as an historical photographic record of the representative types of beauty in Illinois in the year 1922.

Subjects for the photographer may include trees, flowers, rocks, lakes,
streams, hills and general landscape
and may be submitted by individuals,
communities, schools, clubs or chambers of commerce. Efforts are to be encouraged by this competition to preserve the native shrubbery and trees along our highways and the committee believes that much planting will result as the various communities see the advantage of it.
Since Illinois presents such a variety of beauty, it is possible for every county to offer something that none
other has.

RECORD CONSTRUCTION OPERATIONS

The most extensive building work
in the nation's history has been under way all year, and it looks as if record construction will be the rule
for several years. This fact is important, as construction is really the base of prosperity in business.

Houses, factories, commercial buildings and hotels are going up in all parts of the country. There has been a shortage of carpenters and bricklayers for months, and in the principal cities these skilled workmen have received bonuses.

But it is worth while to consider that the building boom can not keep
on with exorbitant construction costs.
If the prices of material and labor
remain high, of course operations will come to a stop. If prices are right, record building should be the rule for several years.

DODGING INCOME TAXATION

This is startling information. Yet,
we have all suspected that the facts
which it reveals existed. Government revenue agents find that more than 1,000,000 persons with annual incomes of $5000 or more have been evading by concealing assets or not making returns. The agents estimate that the government is losing at least $500,000,000 a year through this dodg-

ing.

It seems when a person's income is large enough for him to spare a goodly portion of it for public use he hates to part with any of it. Will we ever get the point of view that it is gratitude to share a reasonable portion of income for public purposes?

KNOCKS

Few of our artists will agree with Homer Saint-Gaudens' belief that America now leads the world in creative art. Their disagreement is natural, to be expected, it being the custom of Americans to "pan" themselves collectively.

Grumbling and dissatisfaction are national traits. A good thing, for dissatisfaction is the sure generator of progress.

Every couple after building a house
tell their friends that if they had to do it over again they'd make such and such improvements. This dissatisfaction makes American homes each year more artistic, more comfortable.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS
by Olive E. Burton

LITTLE BOY BLUE.

"Hello, there!" he said. "Who are you and what's wrong?"

When Nancy and Nick found that Mother Goose's broomstick was not to be found and that Humpty Dumpty knew nothing about it, they looked at the list Mother Goose had given them.
The next name on it was Boy Blue.
"Where does he live?" asked Nancy.
"Just down the road," answered Humpty Dumpty. "But no doubt you'll find him fast asleep. He's likely not to know a thing about Mother Goose's lost broom."

The Twins thanked him and departed.
Pretty soon they came to a hay-cock, and sure enough, they saw a pair of feet and heard someone snor-
ing.
"It's too bad to waken him," said Nancy, "but we must. You twitch his nose, Nick, and I'll pull his ear, and—there! That's the way!"

Sure enough, Little Boy Blue sat
up and rubbed his eyes.
"Hello, there!" he said. "Who are you, and what's wrong?"

"We're looking for Mother Goose's magic broomstick," explained Nick.
"Do you happen to know anything about it? It's lost!"
"No," answered Boy Blue, shaking his head and yawning. "I don't. Why, where are the cows and the sheep? I don't see them anywhere." And he picked up his horn and blew a long,
loud blast.

The first thing the Twins knew he was running through the field for
dear life, without so much as a goodbye.

"There are fine manners for you," declared Nick. "More interested in his own affairs than ours."

Nancy sighed. "Most everybody is,
it seems," she said. "Come on. We'll never find the broom if we don't hurry."

'AROUND THE CORNER

By Berton Braley

IT ain't so much the things you get that make you like to live;
The fun of your possessions is a fun that's fugitive,
And nearly every blessing comes in time to be a bore—
But the pleasure lies in guessing what the future has in store.
And that's what makes tomorrow such a day of mystery,
For just around the corner is the thing we want to see.

WE live in expectation, and the igh dreams of yesterday
Today have gone a-glimmer in a disappointing way,
We still continue curious and eager, as we seek
What may occur tomorrow or the middle of next week.
Today is dull as yesterday—but still we are aglow,
For just around the corner is the thing we want to know.

What's just around the corner may be nothing new or strange,
But ever in our heart of hearts we nurse the hope of change,
And just beyond our vision there's an undetermined chance
Of glorious adventure and of fairy-tale romance.
And so we keep on going with a thrilled expectant mind,
For just around the corner is the thing we hope to find!

HONEYMOONERS ABROAD NO. 21 WHEREIN THE VAMP FAILS TO VAMP

BY ZOE BECKLEY

In London that night Jack was entering his hotel room, worn out but excited. He had been under a tremendous nervous strain. On the one hand, as Cousins had said over the cross-channel telephone to Stanley, he was preparing the shroud for Cousins' position as European manager. Two or three more days, and the chain of evidence of the man's crookedness and treachery would be complete.

Across the ocean one of the vice presidents of the American Electric Supply Corporation was speeding to take charge of the situation. Every-thing pointed to a successful culmination of the mission on which Jack had been sent abroad. Reward would be sure. Promotion; increase in salary.

But he had not heard from Edna for several days. Not one word in reply to his three letters. He knew she was resentful of being dragged away from sightseeing at the behest of his mission. But that did not excuse her for lack of loyalty. She should have had a thought for his peace of mind—this mind of his, that belonged to the firm which was paying him a more than comfortable salary and financing their trip abroad. At a time like this, he needed every thought to concentrate on his work. And here she was, care-free about Paris, not even thinking of him—

His telephone rang. Slowly he came out of his angry abstraction and answered it.

"Hello, Jackie—" drawled a woman's voice, "did I get you out of bed?"

"Who's this?" asked Jack, startled.

"Unchivalrous creature, not to know. It's—Nella."

"Nella? What—is something wrong? Where are you?"

"Right downstairs, my dear. Come down. I need your help—and you need mine."

Jack could not wait for the ele-

"WHAT'S HAPPENED TO EDNA?"

vator but leaped down the stairs, three at a time and rushed up to the woman in the quiet reception room.

"Now!" he cried, forgetting all proper greetings. "What's happened to Edna?"

A red surge of anger overspread Nella's vivid face. She rose, drawing herself up.

"Oh—Edna isn't needing any of your anxiety," she sneered wickedly. "She's with Mark, at a lovely little hotel in Fontainebleau. She's so-sober in doing the Forest with him that I—came here—for company."

Jack stared, speechless. Then suddenly he broke into a roar of nervous laughter.

AMUSEMENTS

GRAND OPERA—CHICAGO

In order to give non-residents of Chicago the best possible service for this year's Grand Opera, the Opera Company has issued coupon books which will remain on sale until Nov. 9.

Each book contains ten (10) coupons of a value of either $2.50 or $5.00, making the books cost either $22.50 or $54.50. Coupons may be used at an time, any number for the same performance, and may be used as money would be, for seats of any price, change being made by other coupons. Only complete books can be sold but a book may be divided by its purchaser in any manner.

We equalize non-residents with residents of Chicago by sending to the former a list of the opera to be produced, together with the cast, to reach them on the day before the announcement is printed in the Chicago paper. Coupon orders for seats will be filled (7) days before the performance, following immediately after the season tickets (the sale of which has been terminated) while the cash sale at the box office commences only 6 days before the performance.

The advantage of coupons then are:

precedence over the entire box office sale and the discount just explained.

The only drawbacks are that the opera company cannot sell less than a complete book (either $22.50 or $54.50) but the book may be divided in any way its purchaser desires, and unused coupons cannot be redeemed at the end of the season.

The opera season commences on November 13th and continues until Jan. 20th, the regular performances being Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Saturday nights and Sunday matinee. The sale of season tickets for Monday night and Saturday matinee has nearly exhausted the capacity of the house, but there are many good seats remaining for all the other performances. Saturday night is at popular prices and for that night, as well as for Friday and Sunday nights, when special performances may be given, there is no season ticket issued—nothing taking precedence over the coupons.

All coupon orders for seats will be filled in the order in which they are received at the auditorium.

Books may be bought by sending a check to George B. Foster, Room 1803 Edison Building, 72 West Adams Street, Chicago, and if desired a book may be registered in the name of the purchaser for that purchaser's exclusive use.

Pine Creek Woman Has Birthday Fete

PINE CREEK.—Mrs. Jessie Ward and daughter, June, and Jessie May and Mr. and Mrs. Adam Swartzlow and daughter, Marion, of Monroe, Wis., are visiting at the Roy and Elmer Nettz homes.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Walter McNeill are glad to hear that she is much improved in health and able to be out again.

Mrs. J. W. Fyock was delightfully surprised Friday evening at her home in honor of the anniversary of her birth, when a company of about sixty neighbors and friends called at her home. Mrs. Fyock was genuinely surprised, proceeded to make her guests heartily welcome. A delicious scramble supper was served and the evening spent socially. At a late hour the party dispersed, the guests wishing Mrs. Fyock many more equally happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Nettz attended the theater at Dixon Monday evening.

Mrs. Ernest Schmidt was a caller in the Walter McNeill home Friday afternoon.

Roy Nettz is the owner of a new car purchased in Dixon.

Miss Catherine Fyock has been assisting Mrs. McNeill with her work the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Nettz, Mrs. Jessie Ward and Mrs. Adam Swartzlow and Mrs. Roy Nettz motored to Sterling Saturday.

SEEK MURDER MOTIVE

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Clinton, Ia., Nov. 7.—Following the verdict of the coroner's jury, returned late yesterday, giving robbery as the motive for the killing of Homer Brownfield and that of his wife, "to silence her as we believe she had recognized her assailants," authorities today redoubled their efforts to solve the mystery of the double slaying of Mr. and Mrs. Brownfield, shot to death Friday night or early Saturday morning in their wayside store on the Lincoln Highway, west of here.

The coroner's jury found that the shooting of Mrs. Brownfield, "must have occurred some time subsequent to that of her husband's," supporting the killing of Brownfield, as he stepped to wait on his slayer, in the guise of a customer, Mr. Brownfield was abused and then shot and left to die.

Lyceum Number for Elks This Evening

The Van Browne Trio, popular novelty entertainers, will appear on the local Elks' Lyceum course at the Family Theatre this evening in a program of interesting originality and variety.

The trio's program includes classical and popular vocal and instrumental solos, duets and trios; readings, impersonations in costume, magic and illusion for the children, as well as novelty rag pictures.

The instrumental selections are rendered on the piano, flute, clarinet, saxophone, portable organ and accordion. The Van Browne Trio present something of intense interest and real entertainment to every member in their audience.

Boy Tries to Learn Identity Thru Radio

By NEA Service

Council Bluffs, Ia.—Wayne C. Emerick of this city wants to know who he is.

So he has resorted to the radio-telephone to find out.

Broadcasting stations throughout the land have been requested to send out his call for relatives or anyone who may cast any light on his real identity.

Wayne C. Emerick is the foster name of the young man who, when only five months old, in 1905, was adopted by the Emerick family here. He was only three days old, in September of the year before, when he was left to be cared for by the Christian Home Orphanage here.

"The information at that time," says Emerick, "was that my mother died three days after my birth and my father shortly afterward disappeared. Since then I have been unable to find anything of his whereabouts or the place where my mother was buried. If the story concerning her death was true."

Real Name
Emerick thinks his real name is Clifford Holmes.

"But no absolute proof has ever been available that it is Clifford Holmes," he adds. "The matron at the orphanage at the time gave this information to my foster parents and I guess that's about the extent of the facts."

Emerick, or Holmes, began broadcasting his request for information about himself from WAAW, the broadcasting station of the Omaha Grain Exchange, at Omaha, Neb. He has sent appeals to other stations for similar services. He has not yet received any help from radio fans who might have listened in.

But Emerick has high hopes for success. Radio, he believes, will help him solve the mystery of himself. He is continuing to send appeals to the

Says Radio Will Not Hurt Cable Business

By NEA Service

New York—Transatlantic radio is not taking any of the overseas business away from the cable companies, says Newcomb Carlton, president of the Western Union Telegraph Company.

"The Radio Corporation of America is today transmitting from 12 to 14 per cent of the eastward and westward business between the United States, Great Britain and Continental Europe," said Carlton. "While a considerable part of this business would no doubt have gone to the cable companies, an important part is newly created traffic."

"The radio rate from New York to London is 18 cents a word, competing against a cable rate of 25 cents. In other words, with rates 30 per cent cheaper, the radio is doing from 12 to 14 per cent of the business."

Instant Quaker Oats

Cooks to perfection in 3 to 5 minutes

Coffee 10 Minutes Oats 3 to 5 minutes now

Now there's an Instant Quaker Oats—the quickest-cooking oats in the world. It cooks in 3 to 5 minutes, and cooks to perfection. Your grocer has both Instant and regular. So you can, if you wish, have the oat dish ready before the eggs or coffee.

Quickness, plus super-flavor

Quaker Oats won their world-wide fame through flavor. They dominate all the earth over, because people love that flavor.

They are flaked from queen grains only—just the rich, plump, savory oats. We get but ten pounds of these luscious flakes from a bushel of choice oats.

Instant Quaker is flaked from the same queen grains. But the oats are cut before flaking. They are rolled very thin and partly cooked. So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And those small, thin flakes cook quickly.

Now, if you want that exquisite flavor, you must get Quaker Oats. If you want five-minute cooking you must get Quaker Oats. Get either style you like best. But for one or both of those reasons, get Quaker. You want the utmost in this food of foods—the greatest food that grows.

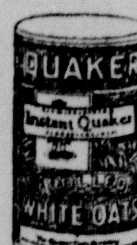

Regular Quaker Oats

CHAPTER III

EVE picked up her rifle. She was trembling violently. Then, mastering her emotion, she walked over to the pack, placed Quintana's rifle and mackinaw in it, coolly hoisted it to her shoulders and buckled it there.

Over her shoulder she kept an eye on Quintana who crouched where he had fallen, unstirring, his deadly eyes watching her.

She placed the muzzle of her rifle against his stomach, rested it so, holding it with one hand, and her finger at the trigger.

At her brief order he turned out both breeches pockets. She herself stooped and drew the Spanish clasp-knife from its sheath at his belt, took a pistol from the holster, another out of his hip pocket. Reaching up and behind her, she dropped these into the pack.

"Maybe," she said slowly, "your ankle is broken. I'll send somebody from Ghost Lake to find you. But whether you're a broken bone or not you'll not go very far, Quintana. . . . After I'm gone you'll be able to free yourself. But you can't get away. You'll be followed and caught. . . . So if you can walk at all you'd better go in to Ghost Lake and give yourself up. . . . It's that or starvation. . . . You've got a watch. . . . Don't stir or touch that trap for half an hour. . . . And that's all."

As she moved away toward the Drowned Valley trail she looked back at him. His face was bloodless but his black eyes blazed.

"If ever you come into this forest again," she said, "my father will surely kill you."

To her horror Quintana slowly grinned at her. Then, still grinning, he placed the forefinger of his left hand between his teeth and bit it. Whatever he meant by the gesture it seemed uncanny, horrible; and the girl hurried on, seized with an overwhelming loathing through which a sort of terror pulsed like evil premonition in a heavy and tortured heart.

Straight into the fire of dawn she sped. A pale primrose light glimmered through the woods; trees, bushes, undergrowth turned a dusky purple. Already the few small clouds overhead were edged with fiery rose.

Then, of a sudden, a shaft of flame played over the forest. The sun had risen.

Hastening, she searched the soft path for any imprint of her father's foot. And even in the vain search she hoped to find him at home—hurried on burdened with two rifles and a pack, still all nervous and quiver from her encounter with Quintana.

Surely, surely, she thought, if he had missed Quintana in Drowned Valley he would not linger in that ghastly place; he'd come home, call in his men, take counsel perhaps—

Down through withered weeds and scrub she hurried, ran across the grass to the kitchen door which swung ajar under its porch.

"Dad!" she called. "Dad!"

Only her own frightened voice echoed in the empty house. She climbed the stairs to his room. The bed lay undisturbed as she had made it. He was not in any of the rooms; there were no signs of him.

Slowly she descended to the kitchen. He was not there. The food she had prepared for him had become cold on a chilled range.

For a long while she stood staring through the window at the sunlight outside. Probably, since Quintana had eluded him, he'd come home for something to eat. . . . Surely, now that Quintana had escaped, Clinch would come back for breakfast.

"THEY ARE CARRYING HIM OUT."

Eve slipped the pack from her back and laid it on the kitchen table. There was kindling in the wood-box. She shook down the cinders, laid a fire, soaked it with kerosene, lighted it, filled the kettle with fresh water.

In the pantry, she cut some ham, and found eggs, condensed milk, butter, bread, and an apple pie. After she had ground the coffee she placed all these on a tray and carried them into the kitchen.

Now there was nothing more to do until her father came, and she sat down by the kitchen table to wait.

Outside the sunlight was becoming warm and vivid. There had been no frost after all—or, at most, merely a white trace in the shadow—on a fallen plank here and there—but not enough to freeze the ground. And, in the sunshine, it all quickly turned to dew, and glittered and sparkled in a million hues and tints like gems—like that handful of jewels she had poured into her father's joined palms—yesterday—there at the ghostly edge of Drowned Valley.

At the memory, and quite mechanically, she turned in her chair and drew Quintana's basket pack toward her.

First she lifted out his rifle, examined it, set it against the window will. Then, one by one, she drew out two pistols, loaded; the murderous Spanish clasp-knife; an ax; a fry-pan and a tin pall, and the rolled-up mackinaw.

Under these the pack seemed to contain nothing except food and ammunition; staples in sacks and a few cans—lard, salt, tea—such things.

The cartridge boxes she piled up on the table; the food she tossed into a tin swill bucket.

About the effects of this man it seemed to her as though something unclean lingered. She could scarcely bear to handle them—threw them from her with disgust.

The garment, also—the heavy brown and green mackinaw—she disliked to touch. To throw it out doors was her intention; but, as she lifted the coat, it unrolled and some things fell from the pockets to the kitchen table—money, keys, a watch, a flat leather case—

She looked stupidly at the case. It had a coat of arms emblazoned on it.

Still, stupidly and as though dazed, she laid one hand on it, drew it to her, opened it.

The Flaming Jewel blazed in her face amid a heap of glittering gems. Still she seemed slow to comprehend—as though understanding were paralyzed.

It was when her eyes fell upon the watch that her heart seemed to stop. Suddenly her stunned senses were lighted as by an infernal flare. . . . Under the awful blow she averted upright to her feet, sick with fright, her eyes fixed on her father's watch.

It was still ticking. She did not know whether she cried out in anguish or was dumb under it. The house seemed to reel around her; under foot too.

When she came to her senses she found herself outside the house, running with her rifle, already entering the woods. But, inside the barrier of trees, something blocked her way, stopped her—a man—her man!

"Eve! In God's name!" he said, as she struggled in his arms; but she fought him and strove to tear her body from his embrace:

"They've killed Dad!" she panted. "Quintana killed him. I didn't know—oh, I didn't know!—and I let Quintana go! Oh, Jack, Jack, he's at the Place of Pines! I'm going there to shoot him! Let me go!"

He'd killed Dad, I tell you! He had Dad's watch—and the case of jewels—they were in his pack on the kitchen table—

"Eve!"

"Let me go!"

"Eve!" He held her rigid a moment in his powerful grip, compelled her dazed, half-crazed eyes to meet his own:

"You must come to your senses," he said. "Listen to what I say: they are bringing in your father."

Her dilated blue eyes never moved from his.

"We found him in Drowned Valley at sunrise," said Stormont quietly. "The men are only a few rods behind me. They are carrying him out."

Her lips made a word without sound.

"Yes," said Stormont in a low voice.

There was a sound in the woods behind them. Stormont turned. Far away down the trail the men came into sight.

Then the State Trooper turned the girl very gently and placed one arm around her shoulders.

Very slowly they descended the hill together. His equipment was shining in the morning sun; and the sun fell on Eve's drooping head, turning her chestnut hair to fiery gold.

An hour later Trooper Stormont was at the Place of Pines.

There was nothing there except an empty trap and the ashes of the dying fire beyond.

the New Mystery Story

"The Green Archer"

Now Running in The Chicago Daily News

Because—

One of the greatest present-day writers of mystery stories is Edgar Wallace, author of "The Secret House," "The Clue of the Twisted Candle" and other tales of absorbing interest. "The Green Archer," written by Mr. Wallace especially for The Chicago Daily News, is one of the greatest and most original mystery stories that have appeared in recent years. Not only is the plot fascinating in its strong and simple yet baffling quality, but it is presented through the medium of characters admirably depicted in a constant succession of novel scenes and an extraordinary array of incidents, charming in their forcefulness, their swiftness of movement and their boldness of conception. All is presented with a vividness and sureness of touch that mark the true master of narrative fiction. Here is, in short, modern romance in its best and most attractive form.

Garre castle, the ancient stronghold of medieval barons of England, with its moat, its massive walls, its dungeons,

And besides—

(and this is of special interest to the "women folks") there's

$1,000 for Some Woman or Girl

who reads "The Green Archer," and $2,000 more for 159 other bright women and girls who win in the distribution of $3,000 in 160 cash prizes for the best solutions of the mystery of the story, mailed to The Chicago Daily News just before publication of the last chapter, in which the mystery is disclosed. The Chicago Daily News is pre-eminently a family newspaper, and its long-established daily installment of a high-grade serial story, is a feature intended specially to commend it to the home circle. To emphasize—and advertise—the fact that The Chicago Daily News is a newspaper particularly suited to woman's reading, the condition is made that the three thousand dollars in prizes shall be paid only for explanations of the story's mystery sent in by women and girls. All may read, but only women and girls may enter the contest—and win the $3,000.

Here are the conditions of the award of $3,000 in cash prizes:

1. To the reader from whom The Daily News receives by mail at its publication offices, 15 North Wells street, Chicago, the most complete and correct solution in all its details of the entire mystery in "The Green Archer," as it shall be disclosed in the final chapter of the story, to be published Wednesday, December 13, in The Daily News, the sum of $1,000 will be paid. The entire sum of $3,000 will be awarded in 160 prizes, as follows:

For the best solution	$1,000
For the second best solution	$250
For the third best solution	$150
For the fourth best solution	$100
For the next best two solutions ($75 each)	$150
For the next best four solutions ($50 each)	$200
For the next best ten solutions ($25 each)	$250
For the next best forty solutions ($10 each)	$400
For the next best one hundred solutions ($5 each)	$500
Making a total of 160 prizes	$3,000

2. "The Green Archer," beginning Thursday, November 2, will continue in daily installments until Friday, December 1, on which date all but the final chapter will have been published. The interval between Friday, December 1, and Saturday, December 9, inclusive, will be allowed for forwarding solutions of the mystery.

3. The final installment of the story, disclosing the mystery, will be published in The Daily News, Wednesday, December 13.

The story began in The Chicago Daily News on Thursday last (Nov. 2), but applications for "back numbers" on the part of thousands who have since learned of the story, have quite exhausted the supply of last week's issues of the paper, and the publisher has therefore now placed in the hands of every newsdealer a generous supply of "reprints" of "The Green Archer" containing the story from the first chapter up to date of publication of this advertisement, and a day or two beyond. This makes it possible for new readers to still begin reading the story from the first chapter, and for every woman and girl to still enter the race for the 160 prizes, amounting to $3,000.

Get your story "reprint" from your newsdealer to-day (they cost nothing), or mail a postal card request for one to The Chicago Daily News, 15 North Wells street, Chicago.

A Spoonful of Purity

One uses so little baking powder in comparison with the other materials used in baking that it always pays to use the best.

For making the finest and most wholesome food there is no substitute for ROYAL Baking Powder. It is made from Cream of Tartar derived from grapes and is absolutely pure.

Successful Electric Auto is Promised By Steinmetz, "Wizard"

By NEA Service
Syracuse, N. Y.—Far better than his latest electric motor car will be the model now being completed by Dr. Charles P. Steinmetz, electrical wizard, at his experimental plant here.

This is the promise given by Steinmetz himself to those who are waiting for final approval of his latest electric vehicle.

It was only a little less than a year ago that production was started on the Steinmetz electric for delivery purposes. Now manufacturers of this vehicle are preparing for improved machinery that will produce a lighter form of electric chassis not only for commercial use, but for passenger bodies as well.

Still Secret

Little is as yet known about this latest product of the electrical genius. It has just been completed, but has not yet been fully tested. Still, its designer and manufacturers express full confidence as to the outcome of the tests. The experimental chassis is being packed for the Baltimore branch of the Steinmetz firm, where the tests will be held.

From the little that is known about this improved vehicle it is believed automobile owners will have a new form of electric machine to look forward to. The salient features of the Steinmetz car now being produced have been improved upon in the new car, its manufacturers say.

Features

These, they say, are:

1. Low cost of maintenance and repair.
2. Simplicity of operation and reliability.
3. Quick getaway.
4. Sustained speed.
5. Resiliency.
6. Minimum vibration.

The weight of the batteries on the car are evenly distributed between the front and the driver's seat. The chassis also has a motor suspension and gearing which is said to be an improved type of that on electric trolley cars.

BEADED TUNICS.

Beaded tunics continue in popularity and are a good addition for any wardrobe for they may be worn over different colored slips to give quite different effects and they make a wardrobe seem more extensive than it really is.

STRONG FOR FIGHTERS.
By Associated Press Leased Wire
Aurora, Ill., Nov. 7.—Corporation Counsel Maurice Lord was electioneering near the polls in the 15th precinct today for the soldiers' bonus, when a grizzled old man approached. Lord showed him a sample ballot with a cross marked for the soldiers' bonus and said: "Give us a hand old fellow."

"Give ye a hand" the old man said, "with General Braddock of Virginia my great grandfather and another grandfather, John L. Sullivan's trainer, I'll say I'll give the fighters a hand. Leave it to me."

A heavy vote was cast in Aurora largely owing to the interest in the soldiers' bonus and the wine and beet propositions.

"The SIGN of the ROSE"

The action of the story starts in motion pictures. At the most dramatic episode, the action fades slowly from the screen and on the stage, with spoken word, the identical cast in the identical setting carries the action to a final denouement. The action again returns to the screen for its happy conclusion.

PEARLS

Third car now on sale. Cheapest fruit put in cans. Also delicious for sauce or eating. Extra fine quality this year. Prices lower than apples.

ONIONS

First car about all cleaned up. Will have another car here first of week, price $1.00 per bushel 50 lbs.

SWEET POTATOES

Car load on sale this week, 12 lbs. for 25c or 95c bushel—nothing better on the market. Almost as cheap as White Potatoes.

CABBAGE

Carload now on sale, $1.50 per cwt. at store.

Potatoes

Will have 3 cars genuine Red River Ohio on sale latter part of this week. You should get some of them for seed. We do not believe there has been any No. 1 genuine Red River Ohio in Dixon yet this season.

Please remember we do not handle any South Dakota Potatoes, as they are much inferior, they are not so good for seed, and we doubt very much whether they will keep. Also have 4 or 5 cars white stock on sale and track. You buy for less money here. Can sell cheaper at store than off car—less expense. Don't compare our stock with amateur dealers.

We are cranks on quality.

Empty Can Foils Dunkerton Robbers

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Dunkerton, Ia., Nov. 7.—An empty can placed so opening a window would dislodge it, balked attempts to rob the First National Bank here this morning after the robbers had cut all main telephone and telegraph cables.

The can's fall roused Henry Luedke, watchman, who fired through an upper window, frightening the burglar away.
